1959 MEETING OF GOULD 1910 AND 1911 CLASSES HELD AT BIRCH VILLA INN

On the afternoon of Aug. 23 five members of each of the 1910 and 1911 classes of Gould Academy, with their wives or husbands and guests, making a total of 18, met at Birch Villa Inn at Bryant Pond for their annual class reunion.

Before lunch, which was served at 2 o'clock, the group had a general visit session and Leslie Davis showed some color slides which were taken at the 1957 and 1958 reunions, also a few taken on a trip last year to the Gaspe Peninsula by Alice Smith, Verna Rowe Evans, and Leslie and Marie Davis.

After lunch, which was baked chicken or ham, the group gathered in the lounge for a short business meeting. A vote was taken to have the meeting on the third Sunday in August 1960, subject to change by the committee if that date conflicted with other interests. The following members were chosen to act on the 1960 committee: Cedric Jenkins, Arthur Brown, Ida Farkard, Marie Davis.

Present were: Parker and Grace Russell, Melhel Packard, Ida Packard, Arthur and Eva Herrick, Wendall and Opal Philbrook, Cedric and Jennie Jenkins and two grandchildren, Lucien Bernier and Judy Jenkins, Helen Bean, Clifton and Edna Bean, Reta Shaw, Leslie and Marie Davis.

CONGRESSMAN OLIVER IN AND ABOUT BETHEL

—Reports from Washington—

On September 15th, the man primarily responsible for the enslavement or death of tens of thousands of Hungarians, East Germans, Latvians, Estonians, and Lithuanians, Soviet Premier Khrushchev, will arrive in the United States as an officially honored guest. The Russian dictator has achieved his long sought after goal of a personal summit with the President of the United States without indicating with any deeds whatsoever, that he is willing to relax world tensions. In fact, quite the contrary is the case. The newly launched Communist offensive in Laos and the fruitless results of the foreign ministers conference at Geneva serve to outline the reality that the Communist goal of world domination has not been altered one bit.

The President of the United States feels, however, that the cause of peace may be furthered through an exchange of personal visits with the Russian Chief of State. I frankly feel that even though we do bargain successfully on the surface, to some degree, the Communists will not hesitate to break any signed agreement when they find it convenient to do so: The Russians have shown this time and time again, starting at the Yalta Conference in 1945. However, since the decision to hold these talks is now a "fait accompli," I don't feel that Congress, at this juncture, should inject itself into this Executive prerogative; too much is at stake. I, of course, hope for the success of these talks but I think Congress can and should serve as an important factor during the Soviet Premier's visit. Since the Russians have gained a propaganda victory through our acquiescence in allowing the Russian Chief of State to visit the United States, I feel that Congress, by refusing to invite Khrushchev to address a joint session, will indicate to our friends in both the free and the slave worlds that the people of the United States have not been deceived by these false overtures.

If our country should greet this Russian despot with no evidence of non-acceptance, the world will judge that we condone the monstrous acts of aggression committed by Russia since the end of World War II. Politic courtesy should be shown him, but no more. Congress through its passive non-acceptance of the Soviet leader can serve to set an example for the entire country. We owe it to the captive nations, to our allies, but more important to ourselves, to show our active disapproval of this despot, who represents the very opposite of the ideals for which our nation stands.

"If a frog is put in a pan of water which is heated very slowly, he will sit there until he cooks. But if you drop him suddenly in a pan of hot water, he will hit the ceiling! Just like people and taxes."—Publication of Oscar A. Hillman & Sons, N. Attleboro.

Tommy Chadbourne entered at a party on Friday evening in honor of Fred Clough who recently moved to Bethel. Those present were: Julia Brown, Martha Keniston, Carol Flint, Norma Kimball, Jackie Saunders, Tommy Chadbourne, Donald Young, Fred Clough, Tommy Sweetser, Dick Jacobs.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moulton and daughters, Linda, Suzanne, Sandra and Paula, of Belmont, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cookson, Jr., and daughters, Cheryl, Laurie and Vicki, of Portland, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon at South Bethel.

A family gathering was held last Friday evening with a cookout supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiley, David, Alan, John, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Ames, Cathy Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis, Tom, Andy, Susan, Michael and Betsy.

IF YOU LIKE GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH, YOU'LL LIKE CHEVY'S 7 BIG BESTS!

BEST BRAKES... STOP ON A DIME AND GIVE YOU MORE STOPS PER DOLLAR They're bigger too. With 'em, Chevy out-stopped all competitors in its field in a NASCAR-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST STYLE... BEAUTY THAT DOESN'T DEMAND A BIG BANK ROLL The experts at POPULAR SCIENCE magazine looked them all over and said that "... in its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in styling." Chevy's leadership in sales for '59 says a lot for its looks too!

BEST RIDE... CARRIES YOU AS CAREFULLY AS IT PAMPERS YOUR DOLLARS "The smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." That's the way MOTOR TREND magazine describes Chevrolet's cream-smooth ride. It's way more fun to sample than to read about though. Get out in a Chevy and see what Full Coil springs do.

BEST ENGINE... YOU COULD SPEND JARFUL OF JACK AND NOT GET A V8 LIKE CHEVY'S Talking about our standard as well as Corvair V8's, SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED says, "Indeed, this series is BEST TRADE-IN... YOU GET MORE DOLLARS BACK FOR YOUR CHEVY Last year, for example, Chevrolet used car prices averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of other makes. Just check the NADA* Guide Book.

BEST ECONOMY... SOCK AWAY YOUR CHEVY SAVINGS As sure as two Chevy Stars won their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, getting the best mileage of any full-size car!

Now there's an Impala Sport Sedan... one of Chevy's new series of Impalas for '59

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer—you might as well get the most!

SO THEY SAY

"This nation has traditionally sought to employ the young male worker between 24 and 44—a white young male worker I might add, at the expense of all other groups. We are going to have to change our attitude toward the minority worker, the older worker, the woman who wants to work, and the youthful worker if we are going to succeed in our search for the quality skills necessary."—James P. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor.
